SECOND CENTURY CAMPAIGN

SUPPORTING SAN FRANCISCO'S HISTORIC
VOGUE AND BALBOA THEATRES

The Second Century Campaign is a capital campaign to fund improvements to allow the historic Vogue and Balboa Theatres to continue to survive and thrive as we enter the second century of film exhibition in San Francisco. Both theatres have to be updated to accommodate digital projection and each theatre also require significant acoustical enhancements in order to be provide a modern cinema experience. The Vogue Theatre (1912) also requires significant electrical upgrades and the Balboa (1926) needs upgraded seats, a new heating system, new drapery and upgraded restroom and concession facilities. The goal of the Second Century Campaign is to raise $500,000 to complete these improvements by the end of 2013.
